

Shared Governance: Responsibilities and Communication Breakout Session – Standing Committees

What are your expectations for shared governance at Georgia College?

What are your responsibilities as a faculty elected senator, volunteer, or appointee?

How will your committee communicate with the University community about the work it is doing?
Specifically, what is your role in this process of communication?

How can your committee engage the university community in shared governance?