

Committee Reports

1. APC Chair Andrew Allen
  - a. Focus: The committee will examine the policy implications of the USG core curriculum refresh.
  - b. Book takeaway: The book serves as a reminder that not just faculty teachers but also students are human beings with ideas and perspectives.
2. DEIPC Chair Trae Welborn
  - a. Focus: As DEI is a major part of discussion across USG, the committee will continue to look for opportunities advance the university's strategic plan.
  - b. Takeaway: Active participation is the essence of liberal arts education. We need to be collaborative, intentional, and proactive at every level of university processes.
3. FAPC, Chair Stephanie Jett
  - a. Focus: The committee will review the Emeritus Faculty Policy.
  - b. Book Takeaway: Faculty are not always "the sage on the stage," we learn from students and colleagues just as they learn from us.
4. RPIPC Chair Brad Fowler
  - a. Focus: The committee will review facilities management with the goal of proposing a policy recommendation during for energy efficiency during the summer months.
  - b. Takeaway: Collaboration is key.
5. SAPC Chair Greg Glotzbecker
  - a. Focus: The committee will continue to Improve SGA involvement in SAPC, ask Student Life for involvement in SAPC, and follow up on crosswalk maintenance.
  - b. Book Takeaway: The 21st-century model of individual learning is no longer enough; we need to work collaboratively.