ARTICLE I. PURPOSES AND POWERS

I.Section1. STATUTORY. The purposes and powers of the University Senate are specified in Article IV of the Institutional Statutes and included here in italics and underlined for information

I.Section1. A. The University Senate is endowed with all the legislative powers and authority of the University Faculty and shall review and recommend for or against policy subject to the approval of the University President, and shall advise the University administration.

I.Section1.B. The University Senate shall not adopt any regulations affecting curricula, and will strive to be mindful and respectful of matters that are more appropriately handled by the academic units (college, school, department, etc.) and divisions, yet may make recommendations concerning matters within these areas that have broader institutional impact or implications.

I.Section2. ADDITIONAL. The University Senate exists to promote and implement effective shared governance at the university. It is expressly charged with recommending academic and institutional policy. In addition to its policy recommending responsibility, the University Senate serves in an advisory role to the administration, particularly in the implementation of policy or improvement of processes that have broad institutional impact or implications, including but not limited to planning and budgetary processes.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP AND MEETINGS

II.Section1. MEMBERSHIP.

II.Section1.A. Composition, Eligibility, and Terms of Service.

II.Section1.A.1. Composition. The University Senate shall have fifty (50) members distributed as follows: the University President, who shall be an ex officio non-voting member, the Chief Academic Officer, who shall be an ex officio non-voting member, thirty-seven (37) members who are faculty selected as described in II.Section1.A.2, four (4) members who are staff selected as described in II.Section1.A.3, two (2) members who are students selected as described in II.Section1.A.4, and five (5) members identified as Presidential Appointees selected as described in II.Section1.A.5. Faculty representation shall always constitute at least seventy-five percent of the voting membership of the University Senate.

II.Section1.A.1.a. Voting. Only faculty vote on academic matters. In this context, faculty is defined as being a member of the corps of instruction for votes of the academic standing committees – specifically the Academic Policy Committee and the Faculty Affairs Policy Committee – while faculty is defined as being an elected faculty senator for votes of the university senate. Further, academic matters are defined as such fundamental areas as research, faculty status, and those aspects of student life which relate to the educational process as contextualized in the Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities in the American Association of University Professors Policy Documents and Reports, which is colloquially known as the AAUP Redbook. The presiding officer in conference with ECUS will make the final determination regarding voting status on issues involving academic matters.

II.Section1.A.1.b. Proxy Voting. Voting by proxy is not permitted at any meeting of the University Senate or any meeting of any committee (including a subcommittee) of the University Senate unless an explicit allowance is made for voting by proxy in these bylaws.

II.Section1.A.2. Elected Faculty Senators. The thirty-seven (37) faculty members are elected as specified in II.Section2.A. The term of service for an elected faculty senator shall be three (3) years in duration and begin with the call to order of the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate and shall continue until a successor assumes office. The eligibility requirements for elected faculty senators are membership in the Corps of Instruction as detailed in II.Section2.A.1 and the completion of at least two (2) years of service at the university at the beginning of the fall semester following their election as an elected faculty senator.

II.Section1.A.3. Selected Staff Senators. The four (4) staff members are selected for one year terms. The term of service of a selected staff senator shall begin with the call to order of the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate and continue until a successor assumes office. The eligibility requirements of selected staff senators are identical to those required for membership on Staff Council as specified in the most current version of the relevant Staff Council governance document (bylaws, constitution, etc.). The selection process for these members shall be determined by Staff Council. The Chair of Staff Council shall ensure that (1) the eligibility requirements from Staff Council governance document(s) as well as a written description of the selection procedure developed by Staff Council is submitted to the Executive Committee no later than February 1 and (2) the selection is implemented according to the procedures with the results reported to the Executive Committee no later than March 1. These eligibility requirements, procedures and results shall be archived in the appropriate format. The results of these selections shall be announced as indicated in III.Section3.

II.Section1.A.4. Selected Student Senators. The two (2) student members are selected for a one year term of service. The term of service of a selected student senator shall begin with the call to order of the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate and continue until a successor assumes office. The eligibility requirements of selected student senators are identical to those required for membership on the Student Government Association as specified in the most current version of the relevant Student Government Association governance documents (bylaws, constitution, etc.). The selection process for these members shall be determined by the Student Government Association. The President of the Student Government Association shall ensure that (1) the eligibility requirements as stated in the relevant Student Government Association governance document(s) (2) a written description of the selection procedure developed by the Student Government Association and (3) the names of the students selected in compliance with the procedures in (2) are submitted to the Executive Committee no later than March 31. These eligibility requirements, procedures and results shall be archived in the appropriate format. The results of these selections shall be announced as indicated in III.Section3.

II.Section1.A.5. Presidential Appointees. The five (5) Presidential Appointees are appointed annually, one appointee to each of the standing committees in V.Section2.C, by the University President after consultation with the Executive Committee. The terms of service of such an appointee shall begin with the call to order of the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate and shall continue until a successor assumes office. Such appointments are renewable and are typically named only after the remaining membership of the University Senate is determined, but shall be identified no later than April 7 of the calendar year in which their term of service begins. All students, staff, faculty, and administrators of the university are eligible to serve as Presidential Appointees. The results of these appointments shall be announced as indicated in III.Section3.

II.Section1.B. Replacements. Vacancies (i.e. professional leave, sick leave, etc.) or resignations that occur during a term of service shall be filled for the remainder of that term following the process used in the original election, selection or appointment.

- To initiate this process the individual or proxy (i.e., colleges/library, Student Government Association, Staff Council, presidential appointee) should notify the Chair of the Subcommittee on Nominations in writing (electronic forms are acceptable).

II.Section2. ELECTION OF ELECTED FACULTY SENATORS.

II.Section2.A. Elected Faculty Senators. The thirty-seven (37) elected faculty senators shall be determined as follows.

II.Section2.A.1. Corps of Instruction List. By September 15 of each academic year, the Executive Committee shall obtain from the Office of Academic Affairs a list of the faculty who are members of the Corps of Instruction. This list shall also indicate the academic unit [College or Library] to which each member of the Corps of Instruction is assigned. The Executive Committee shall apportion thirty-four (34) of the elected faculty senator positions among the Colleges and the Library in a manner consistent with II.Section2.A.2. Each of the remaining three (3) elected faculty senator positions shall be designated as an at-large elected faculty senator position representing the entire membership of the Corps of Instruction. For each elected faculty senator position, only members of the Corps of Instruction who are also members of the designated constituency of that elected faculty senator position are eligible to vote.

II.Section2.A.2. Apportionment. The exact number of elected faculty senator positions apportioned to each academic unit shall be determined by the Executive Committee and announced to the University Senate by October 1. Each academic unit must be apportioned at least two elected faculty senator positions.

II.Section2.A.3. Election Process. The faculty of each College and the Library shall determine a constituency and an election procedure for each elected faculty senator position apportioned to their respective academic unit, subject to the eligibility criteria and term of service specified in II.Section1.A.2 and the voting eligibility criteria specified in II.Section2.A.1. College Deans and the University Librarian shall ensure that (1) the aforementioned election procedure and specification of the constituencies from their respective academic unit are submitted in writing to the Executive Committee no later than December 1 and (2) the elections within their unit are implemented according to unit procedures and the results are reported to the Executive Committee no later than February 1. These procedures and results shall be archived in an appropriate format. The results of these elections shall be announced as indicated in III.Section3.

II.Section2.A.4. At-Large. The Executive Committee shall determine an election procedure and conduct the elections for each of the at-large elected faculty senator positions subject to the eligibility criteria and term of service specified in II.Section1.A.2 and the voting eligibility criteria specified in II.Section2.A.1. The results of this election shall be announced as indicated in III.Section3.

II.Section3. MEETINGS OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE.

II.Section3.A. Regular Meetings.

II.Section3.A.1. Frequency. The University Senate shall have at least four regular meetings during the academic year, one in each of the months of September, November, February, and April, and at other times deemed necessary. The Executive Committee shall have the option of canceling a maximum of two of these four regular meetings should there be insufficient business for the meeting. By April 1, after consulting the University Calendar, the outgoing Executive Committee shall announce and publicize the meeting dates, places and times for the regular meetings that are scheduled to occur during the following academic year. Changes to this schedule shall be announced and publicized by the Executive Committee within five (5) calendar days of the time at which the decision to change the schedule was made.

II.Section3.A.2. Motions. Any motion (including a resolution) that is to be proposed by a committee at a regular meeting shall be accompanied by explanatory material including a rationale and description. The statement of such a motion and all supporting documentation shall be provided to the Executive Committee at least ten (10) calendar days prior to that meeting.

II.Section3.A.3. Reports. Each standing committee and the Executive Committee, through its duly elected chair, shall, at all regular meetings of the University Senate, make a brief oral report of business transacted by the committee since the previous meeting of the University Senate. In addition, II.Section3.I applies to such reports.

II.Section3.A.4. Agenda. The Executive Committee shall set the agenda for any regular meeting of the University Senate. This agenda shall be disseminated to all members of the University Senate no fewer than eight (8) calendar days prior to the meeting. The Executive Committee shall include as part of this agenda the statements of any motions that are to be considered by the University Senate at this meeting, including information necessary to access all documents supporting such motions.

II.Section3.A.4.a. Consent Agenda. A consent agenda, known in Robert's Rules of Order as a "consent calendar" (11th ed. p.361, III.11-32) may be presented by the Presiding Officer in advance of a regular meeting. Items listed are usually of a routine and uncontroversial nature. For each source committee, items emerging from that source committee are placed on the consent agenda by the Presiding Officer at the request of, and in consultation with, the chair of that source committee. The Presiding Officer may consult with the Executive Committee when setting the consent agenda. The consent agenda is taken up at a regular meeting prior to source committee reports. An item may be removed, without a stated reason, from the consent agenda at the request of any member. Removed items may be taken up either immediately after the consent agenda, placed later on the regular agenda, or added to a future meeting's agenda at the discretion of the assembly. Items not removed from the consent agenda shall be considered collectively and without amendment or debate. A motion to approve the consent agenda requires a second and a two-thirds majority of those casting votes favoring adoption, assuming the presence of a quorum.

II.Section3.A.5. Quorum. A majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum.

II.Section3.A.6. Duration. University Senate meetings shall be no more than seventy-five (75) minutes in duration unless otherwise agreed to by a motion to extend the meeting duration.

II.Section3.B. Special Meetings.

II.Section3.B.1. Call. A special meeting shall be called by the Presiding Officer of the University Senate within ten (10) calendar days of receiving a written request, which must include specification of the proposed purpose for such a meeting, from either (1) at least twenty percent (20%) of the membership of the University Senate or (2) the Executive Committee. Special meetings may also be called by the University President, the Chief Academic Officer, or the Presiding Officer of the University Senate. Individuals calling such a meeting should apply this responsibility judiciously, in particular, for a meeting scheduled during a recess between academic semesters.

II.Section3.B.2. Notice. Written notice of any special meeting shall be distributed by the individual (i.e. the University President, the Chief Academic Officer, or the Presiding Officer of the University Senate) who is calling the meeting to every member of the University Senate and made accessible to members of the University Community at least three (3) calendar days prior to the special meeting. Such notice shall include the date, time, location and agenda for the special meeting. Discussions and actions at the meeting shall be limited to items listed on the agenda in said notice.

II.Section3.B.3. Agenda. The Executive Committee shall set the agenda for any special meeting of the University Senate. The Executive Committee shall include as part of this agenda the statements of any motions that are to be considered by the University Senate at this meeting, including information necessary to access all documents supporting such motions.

II.Section3.B.4. Other Applicable Sections. Subsections II.Section3.A.5 and II.Section3.A.6 apply to special meetings.

II.Section3.C. Special Meetings Outside the Academic Year.

II.Section3.C.1. Rationale and Other Applicable Sections. The scope of meetings of this kind shall be limited to the exercise of the advisory role, articulated in I.Section2, on matters within the jurisdiction of the University Senate that are time-sensitive. Such meetings are anticipated to occur primarily in the summer months between academic years when convening the full membership of the University Senate may not be feasible. Subsections II.Section3.B.1, II.Section3.B.2, II.Section3.B.3 and II.Section3.A.6 apply to these meetings.

II.Section3.C.2. Quorum. Twenty five percent (25%) of the membership shall constitute a quorum. The Executive Committee shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the University President or a designee as well as all types [elected faculty, selected staff, selected student, Presidential Appointee] of University Senators are present at meetings of this kind.

II.Section3.C.3. Ratification. Discussions and actions at such a meeting shall be limited to the agenda items issued with the call. Any action taken at such a meeting shall be effective only until ratification of the action can be considered through the normal deliberation process of the University Senate. It shall be the responsibility of the Executive Committee to ensure that (1) the ratification of any such action is considered through the normal deliberation process and (2) informational updates regarding the status of the deliberation are provided at each regular meeting of the University Senate until such time as the deliberation reaches conclusion. If any such action is not ratified through this normal deliberation process, then it shall be deemed rescinded.

II.Section3.D. Parliamentary Authority. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the University Senate in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the University Senate may adopt.

II.Section3.D.1. Parliamentarian. The Executive Committee shall name a parliamentarian to the University Senate for the coming academic year at the first regular University Senate meeting. The Presiding Officer may defer to the parliamentarian inquiries pertaining to the proper procedure to be followed in matters of rules of order.

II.Section3.E. Meetings of Elected Faculty Senators. Any elected faculty senator shall have the right to call a meeting of the elected faculty senators for deliberative and informational purposes regarding issues being considered by the University Senate.

II.Section3.F. Open Meetings. Meetings of the University Senate and its committees, except the Executive Committee at its own discretion, shall be open to the University Community, provided that only members have the privilege of voting, and non-members shall have the privilege of the floor only when specifically provided by the University Senate or its committees, or when recognized by the presiding officer of the meeting.

II.Section3.G. Minutes. The minutes of the University Senate and its committees, including the Executive Committee, shall be open to inspection by the University Community subject to applicable privacy and open records laws.

II.Section3.H. Attendance. Each University Senator is expected to attend every University Senate meeting. Each member of a committee of the university senate is expected to attend every meeting of that committee. A report that contains an aggregation of the attendance records of committees and the University Senate shall be accessible to all members of the University Community in an appropriate format. A person who is on authorized leave for an extended period of time shall notify the Chair of the Committee to which the person has been elected and the Chair of the Executive Committee of this anticipated absence.

II.Section3.I. Reports. All reports given at a University Senate meeting shall be submitted in an appropriate format to the Secretary of the University Senate for inclusion in the minutes of that meeting.

II.Section4. OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY SENATE.

II.Section4.A. Presiding Officer and Presiding Officer Elect. The University Senate shall have a Presiding Officer, who presides at all meetings of the University Senate, and a Presiding Officer Elect, who shall assume the position of Presiding Officer the following year. Only elected faculty senators are eligible to serve as Presiding Officer or Presiding Officer Elect. The election of the Presiding Officer Elect shall proceed as follows. At the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate, the outgoing Subcommittee on Nominations shall nominate one elected faculty senator from the incoming University Senate. The Presiding Officer at the spring organizational meeting shall then call for other nominations from the floor. Should this result in more than one nominee for Presiding Officer Elect, all members of the incoming University Senate shall vote by secret ballot. The nominee receiving the most votes shall be the Presiding Officer Elect. The terms of service for the Presiding Officer and Presiding Officer Elect shall begin with the adjournment of this spring organizational meeting, and shall end when a successor assumes office. Should a vacancy in the Presiding Officer Elect position occur between spring organizational meetings of the University Senate, a replacement Presiding Officer Elect, who is an elected faculty senator from the current University Senate, shall be nominated by the current Subcommittee on Nominations. The Presiding Officer at the next meeting of University Senate shall then call for other nominations from the floor. Should this result in more than one nominee for Presiding Officer Elect, all members of the current University Senate shall vote by secret ballot. The nominee receiving the most votes shall be the Presiding Officer Elect. The term of service for the replacement Presiding Officer Elect shall begin at the conclusion of the University Senate meeting and shall end when a successor assumes office.

II. Section 4.B. Secretary. The University Senate shall elect a Secretary at its spring organizational meeting who shall be responsible for keeping minutes at all meetings of the University Senate. Only elected faculty senators are eligible to serve as Secretary. The election of the Secretary of the University Senate shall proceed as follows. At the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate, the outgoing Subcommittee on Nominations shall nominate one elected faculty senator from the incoming University Senate. The Presiding Officer at the spring organizational meeting shall then call for other nominations from the floor. Should this result in more than one nominee for Secretary, all members of the incoming University Senate shall vote by secret ballot. The nominee receiving the most votes shall be the Secretary. The term of service of the Secretary shall begin at the call to order of the first meeting of the University Senate following the spring organizational meeting at which the Secretary is elected, and shall end when a successor assumes office. Should a vacancy in the Secretary position occur between spring organizational meetings of the University Senate, a replacement Secretary, who is an elected faculty senator from the current University Senate, shall be nominated by the current Subcommittee on Nominations. The Presiding Officer at the next meeting of University Senate shall then call for other nominations from the floor. Should this result in more than one nominee for Secretary, all members of the current University Senate shall vote by secret ballot. The nominee receiving the most votes shall be the Secretary. The term of service for the replacement Secretary shall begin at the conclusion of the University Senate meeting and shall end when a successor assumes office.

ARTICLE III. UNIVERSITY SENATE ORGANIZATION

III. Section 1. STANDING COMMITTEES. The University Senate shall discharge its responsibilities through a system of standing committees elected by and directly responsible to the University Senate. These standing committees shall establish their own operating policies and procedures consistent with these bylaws and the University Statutes. These must be filed with the Executive Committee and updated as needed.

III. Section 2. SLATE OF NOMINEES. Each spring, after the membership of the incoming University Senate has been determined, the outgoing Subcommittee on Nominations shall propose a slate of nominees for standing committees and permanent subcommittees for the following academic year. This work shall be completed no later than April 7. At its organizational meeting in the spring, the incoming University Senate shall elect the committee members. After the nominations of the Subcommittee on Nominations have been placed on the ballot, additional nominations may be made from the floor. The majority of members serving on standing committees must be university senators. The incoming committee members shall begin their term of service with the call to order of the spring organizational meeting of the committee and shall end when their successor assumes office.

III.Section3. ANNOUNCE RESULTS. Within ten (10) calendar days of the adjournment of the spring organizational meeting of the University Senate, the Presiding Officer of the University Senate shall make an email announcement to the university community providing the results of elections <elected faculty senators for academic units (II.Section2.A.3) and for at-large (II.Section2.A.4)>, selections <selected staff senators (II.Section1.A.3) and selected student senators (II.Section1.A.4)>, and appointments <Presidential Appointees (II.Section1.A.5)>. At the discretion of the Presiding Officer, continuing members of the University Senate may also be included in this email announcement.

ARTICLE IV. COMMITTEE ORGANIZATION

IV.Section1. COMMITTEE BUSINESS. The regular operations of the University Senate shall follow a committee review procedure. The University Senate by a two-thirds majority vote may suspend committee review of a specific matter and act as a committee of the whole. In all other cases, the University Senate shall submit all matters of substance for study, recommendations, and/or action by a committee prior to definitive action being taken by the University Senate. Standing committee business may be initiated by any member of the committee, by the Executive Committee, by the University President, by the Chief Academic Officer, or by a written request to the Executive Committee signed by at least three Senators.

IV.Section1.A Committee Recommendations. Committee members shall vote on each proposal submitted to the committee. In cases where the vote is divided, the number of votes for and against the proposal shall be recorded in the committee's meeting minutes. Recommendations for or against the proposal shall be brought before the University Senate either as a formal motion or as an item on the consent agenda. All recommendations by a committee, for or against a proposal, shall receive disposition by the University Senate and this disposition along with a summary of any preceding deliberation shall be recorded in the University Senate minutes.

IV.Section2. ANNUAL REPORTS. The committees listed in V.Section2.A.1 shall constitute the standing committees of the University Senate. Each standing committee and the Executive Committee shall present a comprehensive, written, annual report in an appropriate format to the Executive Committee. This report shall include a summary of the major items considered by the committee during the academic year and the disposition of each. The Executive Committee shall set a due date and a template for these reports in consultation with the standing committee chairs and these reports shall be posted with the minutes of the last University Senate meeting of the academic year.

IV.Section3. STANDING COMMITTEE OFFICERS ELECTIONS AND DOCUMENT TRANSFER.

IV.Section3.A. Organizational Meetings. Each of the incoming standing committees shall hold a meeting at which they elect committee officers in accordance with V.Section2.B.1. Within ten (10) calendar days of the spring organizational meeting of the incoming University Senate for the subsequent academic year, the Executive Committee shall both (1) identify a time for these meetings and (2) communicate this time to the members of the standing committees. For each standing committee, the Executive Committee shall designate a facilitator to both preside at its meeting and conduct the elections of its committee officers. Should there be any unfilled positions on the incoming committee, specifically members not known by name such as SGA appointees, Presidential Appointees named by title, etc., the Executive Committee shall name voting proxies for the elections of the committee officers from the pool of outgoing committee members.

IV.Section3.B. Transfer of Records. The outgoing chair of each standing committee shall transfer current committee records to the incoming standing committee. Records older than twelve (12) months and not needed by the incoming committee shall be handled in accordance with the policies of the Board of Regents and State of Georgia requirements (see government link http://www.usg.edu/records_management/).

IV.Section4. COMMITTEE SERVICE AND VOTING. All members of the University Senate shall have at least one University Senate committee assignment. Faculty, staff, administrators and students who are not members of the University Senate may be nominated to University Senate committees if the Subcommittee on Nominations deems that appropriate. Committee members who are not members of the University Senate shall be afforded all rights of committee membership, including voting unless explicitly designated as a non-voting member of the committee in these bylaws, but shall have none of these rights in the University Senate.

IV.Section5. REPLACEMENTS. Vacancies on the University Senate Committees that occur during the term of service shall be filled for the remainder of that term in the same manner as the original election, selection, or appointment.

IV.Section6. MEETINGS. The standing committees, as listed in V.Section2.A.1, shall meet as needed throughout the year, including recesses between academic semesters, to facilitate the functioning of the University Senate. The governance calendar designates meeting times for the standing committees throughout the academic year.

IV.Section6.A. Call. In addition, a meeting shall be called by the standing committee chair within ten (10) calendar days of receiving a written request, which must include specification of the proposed purpose for such a meeting, from either (1) the Executive Committee or (2) at least twenty percent (20%) of the membership of the standing committee. A meeting of a standing committee also may be called by the University President, the Chief Academic Officer, the Presiding Officer of the University Senate, or the chair of the standing committee. Individuals calling such a meeting should apply this responsibility judiciously, in particular, for a meeting scheduled during a recess between academic semesters.

IV. Section 6.B. Notice. Written notice of any meeting of a standing committee shall be distributed to every member of the standing committee by the individual calling the meeting and made accessible to members of the University Senate at least three (3) calendar days prior to the meeting. Such notice shall include the date, time, location and agenda for the meeting.

IV. Section 6.C. Quorum. A majority of the standing committee membership shall constitute a quorum.

Section 1.A.1 and V. Section 1.A.2. The Chair of the Executive Committee shall be the Presiding Officer of the University Senate. The Vice-Chair of the Executive Committee shall be the Presiding Officer Elect of the University Senate. The Secretary of the Executive Committee shall be the Secretary of the University Senate.

V. Section 1.A.1. Academic Unit Representation. For each college or the library not represented among the three (3) University Senate Officers serving on the committee, the outgoing Subcommittee on Nominations shall nominate an incoming elected faculty senator from that academic unit to serve on the Executive Committee. This process shall never result in more than four additional members to the Executive Committee.

V. Section 1.A.2. Chair Emeritus. Should the Chair of the outgoing Executive Committee not be an elected faculty senator on the incoming Executive Committee, the Chair of the outgoing Executive Committee shall serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of the incoming Executive Committee to assist with continuity for the following academic year.

V. Section 1.B. Meetings. The Executive Committee shall meet as needed throughout the year to facilitate the functioning of the University Senate. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by its Chair, the University President, the Chief Academic Officer, or by written request from a majority of the Executive Committee membership. A majority of the Executive Committee membership shall constitute a quorum.

V.Section1.C. Duties. The duties of the Executive Committee shall include the following:

V.Section1.C.1. Advisory to Administration.

V.Section1.C.1.a. Advisory to President. The elected members of the Executive Committee shall constitute an advisory committee of the faculty to the University President.

The Executive Committee shall, as the need arises, appoint not fewer than three nor more than five impartial faculty members to serve as the informal body of inquiry (the “body of inquiry”), as described in the Policy Manual of the Board of Regents (8.3.9.2), to mitigate the removal of any tenured or non-tenured faculty member. This body of inquiry shall be responsible for the determination of confidentiality relating to such informal inquiries, especially when sensitive information about particular individuals would be otherwise revealed. Should this body of inquiry fail to effect an adjustment (e.g. be unable to negotiate a resolution), they shall advise the University President whether dismissal proceedings should be undertaken. This body of inquiry’s recommendation shall not be binding on the University President.

V.Section1.C.4. Steering Function. Except when the University Senate gives specific directions, the Executive Committee, in consultation with the standing committee chairs, shall, when consideration is being given to referring any matter to a standing committee, determine the standing committee that shall have jurisdiction; provided, however, that nothing in this responsibility shall challenge the University President's authority and responsibility for interpretation of the Statutes and bylaws or for determining ultimate jurisdiction when conflicts arise.

V.Section1.C.5. Motion Review. The Executive Committee may make editorial suggestions to the language of any motion, including a resolution, that is submitted for University Senate consideration.
