Georgia College & State University

Prepared by Craig Turner for the August 12, 2009 Governance Retreat

- ~1977, 1978 Faculty partitioned into schools (Arts & Sciences, Business, Education; Correction Nursing off A&S in early 80s).
~1984, 1985 Faculty Senate was established as an advisory (not governance) body to the University President. The charge of this body was to engage in open candid dialogue about any matter of interest or concern to faculty. This established a formal and direct line of communication between the University President and the University Faculty.
- 1993 University Statutes Revised (have not yet found details to indicate the specific revisions)
1996, 1997, 1998 Board of Regents charges GCSU with “Public Liberal Arts Mission” (1996), Dr. Rosemary DePaolo named [the ninth] University President following her appointment by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia (1997), USG Semester Conversion (1998)

- Sep 22, 2000 One of the work products produced by the Governance Task Force (consisting of 7 students, 7 staff, 7 faculty, and 7 administrators) entitled “Standards of Governance” is approved by the University Council. The Standards of Governance were articulated as six statements that were (1) the result of a review process in which each constituency (students, staff, administrators, faculty) was consulted by its representatives to offer suggested revisions to inform the final draft and (2) designed to describe desirable working relationships among students, staff, administrators and faculty.
- April 2001 Faculty Bylaws Revisions were adopted by the University Faculty. These bylaws focused on rules for holding meetings of the University Faculty. There were three votes taken [Dec 2000, January 2001 and March 2001] and in each case nearly all votes cast were in the affirmative. The first two votes did not reach the two-thirds majority necessary for approval as fewer than two-thirds of the University Faculty completed a ballot in each of these elections.

Hudson, Jr, Professor of History at Georgia State University and Executive Secretary of the Georgia Conference of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP), met with a campus committee to discuss two proposed versions of revisions to the University Statutes, one drafted by University Council and the other drafted by Faculty Senate.

The agenda included an informational update on the Quality Enhancement Plan from VPAA Anne Gormly and a report from the Bylaws Subcommittee. This motion carried. In these bylaws, there were forty-nine members of the University Senate [as specified in Statutes]: the University President (as Presiding Officer), four Vice Presidents, one Staff member (Chair of Staff Council), one Student (President of Student Government Association), six Presidential Appointees and thirty-six faculty. The policy-recommending committees were the Academic Governance Committee (AGC), the Budget and Planning Committee (BPC), the Student Affairs Committee (SAC), and the University Services Committee (USC). Each of these committees consisted of fifteen people and included students, staff, administrators and faculty. The Executive Committee [comprising an elected faculty senator from each of the four schools and the VPAA and University President] served as a steering committee of the University Senate and the elected faculty members of ECUS served as an advisory committee to the University President.
