

DRAFT Governance History (Corrections Welcome)

Georgia College & State University

Prepared by Craig Turner for the August 14, 2013 Governance Retreat

- ~1977, 1978 Faculty partitioned into schools (Arts & Sciences, Business, Education; Nursing broke off from A&S in early 80s).
~1984, 1985 Faculty Senate was established as an advisory (not governance) body to the University President. The charge of this body was to engage in open candid dialogue about any matter of interest or concern to faculty and established an official and direct line of communication between the University President and the University Faculty.
- 1993 University Statutes Revised (have not yet found details to indicate the specific revisions)
1996, 1997, 1998 Board of Regents charges GCSU with “Public Liberal Arts Mission” (1996), Dr. Rosemary DePaolo named [the ninth] University President following her appointment by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia (1997), USG Semester Conversion (1998)
- January 1998 President Rosemary DePaolo meets with the Faculty Senate Chair and proposes the concept of a University Senate (governance body vs. advisory body) for consideration by the Faculty Senate.
- 1999-2000 President Rosemary DePaolo brings in external consultants to perform a Governance Review for the University. One consultant met with focus groups on November 10-11, 1999 and January 13-14, 2000. The consultants were Dr. Edward M. Penson of the Penson-Strawbridge consulting firm and Dr. Hugh D. Hudson, Jr, Professor of History at Georgia State University and Executive Secretary of the Georgia Conference of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP).
- February 18, 2000 President Rosemary DePaolo announces the new electronic archive of minutes of working groups (committees, councils, Faculty Senate, University Faculty, Schools, etc).
- September 22, 2000 One of the work products produced by the Governance Task Force (consisting of 7 students, 7 staff, 7 faculty, and 7 administrators) entitled “Standards of Governance” is approved by the University Council. The Standards of Governance were articulated as six statements that were (1) the result of a review process in which each constituency (students, staff, administrators, faculty) was consulted by its representatives to offer suggested revisions to inform the final draft and (2) designed to describe desirable working relationships among students, staff, administrators and faculty.
- April 2001 Faculty Bylaws Revisions were adopted by the University Faculty. These bylaws focused on rules for holding meetings of the University Faculty. There were three votes taken [Dec 2000, January 2001 and March 2001] and in each case nearly all votes cast were in the affirmative. The first two votes did not reach the two-thirds majority necessary for approval as fewer than two-thirds of the University Faculty completed a ballot in each of these elections.
- February 11, 2002 Dr. Hugh D. Hudson, Jr, Professor of History at Georgia State University and Executive Secretary of the Georgia Conference of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP), met with a campus committee to discuss two proposed versions of revisions to the University Statutes, one drafted by University Council and the other drafted by Faculty Senate.
- February 25, 2002 The University Faculty endorsed, in concept, a new governance assembly called the University Senate adopting eleven statements to guide the development of the University Senate.
- September 12, 2002 The University Council endorsed revisions to the University Statutes. (University Senate language)
September 23, 2002 The University Faculty endorsed revisions to the University Statutes. Among the revisions was language to describe the composition and responsibilities of both the proposed University Senate and its steering committee (Executive Committee). These revisions were approved by the Board of Regents on Feb 5, 2003 making them effective as of that date.
- October 3, 2002 The Faculty Senate called for schools and departments to hold elections to select individuals to represent them on the Interim University Senate.
- November 18, 2002 The faculty elected to serve on the Interim University Senate met electing Ken Farr, Jerry Fly, Lee Gillis, and Bob Wilson as faculty for the Executive Committee. Other members of the Executive Committee of the Interim University Senate were University President Rosemary DePaolo and VPAA Anne Gormly.
- January 8, 2003 Organizational Executive Committee (ECUS) meeting: ECUS elected Ken Farr (Chair), Lee Gillis (Vice-Chair), and Jerry Fly (Secretary). In addition, ECUS formed two subcommittees to facilitate the transition to the University Senate for the 2003-2004 academic year. Members selected to serve on the subcommittee to write the initial bylaws were: Bob Wilson-Chair, Mike Digby, Dave DeVries, Anne Gormly, Betty Block, Chris Lowery, Karynne Kleine, and Quintus Sibley (ex-officio). Members selected to serve on the subcommittee to educate the university community on the University Senate were: Jerry Fly-Chair, Mike Rose, Dee Russell, and Cindy Diaz.
- February 17, 2003 The first meeting of the Interim University Senate. Agenda included reports from the Executive Committee as well as the Bylaws and the Educating the university community on the University Senate Subcommittees.
- March 24, 2003 The second (and final) meeting of the Interim University Senate. The agenda included an informational update on the SACS Quality Enhancement Plan from VPAA Anne Gormly and a report from the Bylaws Subcommittee. The Bylaws report culminated in a motion to adopt the draft as amended by discussion at this meeting. This motion carried.
- In these bylaws, there were forty-nine members of the University Senate [as specified in Statutes]: the University President (as Presiding Officer), four Vice Presidents, one Staff member (Chair of Staff Council), one Student (President*
