Hello Recently-elected FAPC Members,

I have been appointed by ECUS to facilitate the beginning of your Standing Committee organizational meeting so that officers can be elected. So that you'll be sure to attend I wanted to alert you to the location and time of the meeting--
Friday at 12:30-1:45 in Arts & Sciences 1-16. With the exception of Dr. Ormond, who I am "ccing" because I understand he substituted for the Provost on occasion in 2010-11, I hope each of you will consider the opportunity to serve the University Senate as an officer of FAPC. In light of that opportunity I am attaching a handout regarding Standing Committee Officers' duties here as I hope those who are interested in officer positions will be prepared to speak briefly as to their interest in the position. I am also including a tentative agenda for that first meeting. Lastly, I direct your attention to the final report of the 2010-11 FAPC to help inform you for this meeting.

Word to the wary—As a frugalmeister I don't bring copies of these except for myself. Looking forward to kicking off a productive year; see you then--klmk
